Chef Judith Cooks for Jamaican Minister

The Caribbean Cove Contributes Food for Private Party Hosting Minister Assamba

Oakland, Calif., August 24, 2003 — The Honorable Aloun N'Dombet-Assamba, Jamaican Minister of Industry and Tourism, wrapped up her whirlwind tour of the San Francisco Bay area with a keynote speech at the Jamaica Association of Northern California's 2003 Independence Day Celebration dinner on August 16, 2003, at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Pleasanton, California. The previous night, Minister Assamba attended a cocktail reception at a private residence in Hayward, California, and food provided by Chef Judith and The Caribbean Cove helped ensure the party was a success. Says Judith, "It was a great pleasure to be a part of the wonderful hospitality extended to the Minister during her visit to the Bay area."

The Caribbean Cove is a woman-of-color owned independent food service business serving the San Francisco Bay area. The Caribbean Cove serves up authentic Caribbean cuisine for a wide range of special occasions including corporate events, wedding receptions, theme parties, backstage cooking for music events and more.
